

eabh* Contribution Order

Subscription rate corporate membership 4,000 € - 20,000 €

- Voting right in the General Members' Meeting of the Association
- Free participation in all conferences and workshops
- Special rates for all summer schools and training events
- Subscription to the Financial History Review and the FHR Bibliography
- Complimentary copies of all eabh-publications
- Access to high level historical research in banking, insurance and finance

Subscription rate partnership agreements* 1,000 €

- Special rates for all conferences, workshops, summer schools and training events
- Subscription to the Financial History Review and the FHR Bibliography
- Access to high level historical research in banking, insurance and finance

Subscription rate individual membership 300 € - 700 €

- Participation fee for attendance to all conferences, workshops, summer schools and training events to be decided on an ad hoc basis
- Subscription to the Financial History Review and the FHR Bibliography
- Access to high level historical research in banking, insurance and finance

Honorary membership no fee

- Free participation in all conferences and workshops
- Special rates for all summer schools and training events
- Subscription to the Financial History Review and the FHR Bibliography
- Complimentary copies of all eabh-publications
- Access to high level historical research in banking, insurance and finance

Withdrawal of Membership

The membership in the Association ends in case of withdrawal, which is permitted subject to three months' notice at the end of each financial year.

For further information please contact Carmen Hofmann, Secretary General: c.hofmann@bankinghistory.org

*For (non-profit) associations, research institutes, think tanks, academic institutions like universities and business schools and similar organisations.

Former members of the eabh boards