ANNOUNCEMENTS

Barclays

Happy Birthday!

This year marks the 125th anniversary of the establishment of Barclays as a limited company. The first Board of Directors of Barclay & Co Ltd was an amalgamation of 20 private banks, led by Barclay, Bevan, Tritton & Co. Drawn together to compete with larger joint stock banks, the 20 banks came from across England, and many of them were already connected through their shared Quaker heritage. Starting with 960 staff, 182 branches, and assets of £29 million, by 1920, through a programme of growth and amalgamation, Barclays had become one of the UK’s ‘top five’. By 1935, it was Britain’s biggest bank. Although Barclays can trace its history back, via Barclay, Bevan, Tritton & Co to 1690, 1896 is no less significant, marking the beginning of the modern company.

Digital rebirth of historical datasets Workshop

30 June 2022 - Sofia, Bulgaria
eabh in cooperation with the Bulgarian National Bank
Call for Papers

Monetary unions in history Conference

1 July 2022 - Sofia, Bulgaria
eabh in cooperation with the Bulgarian National Bank
Call for Papers

PODCAST

Finance & History The eabh Podcast

Looking for precedents from the exciting world of financial history
All episodes

Latest episodes

Sovereign Debt

Helicopter Money

Interest Rates

Breton Woods

Who finances the financiers?

The BNP Paribas Archive

eabh Members’ Corner

We are delighted to welcome the following new member:

Vereinigung deutscher Wirtschaftsarchivare e.V.

Contact persons: Martin L. Müller & Martin Münzel, Germany

Call for Papers

eabh is now a member of the International Macro History Online Seminar (IMHOS) network!

The International Macroeconomic History Online Seminar Series aims to keep the flow of intellectual debate active and to bring macroeconomic history topics to an interested public on a weekly basis. The new series is starting on 22 September.

Digital rebirth of historical datasets

Workshop

30 June 2022 - Sofia, Bulgaria

eabh in cooperation with the Bulgarian National Bank

Call for Papers

Monetary unions in history

Conference

1 July 2022 - Sofia, Bulgaria

eabh in cooperation with the Bulgarian National Bank

Call for Papers

eabh Papers

You are a scholar in banking, financial, business, and economic history, and wish to increase your research’s impact? Give your findings international visibility publishing them in eabh working papers series!

Read more

Contribute

Read more

Historical Association of Deutsche Bank

Deutsche Bank has launched a project to commemorate its Jewish employees who were victims of Nazi persecution.

Read more

Follow us on twitter!

@bankinghistory
@FinanceHistory1
@history_banking

HSBC

HSBC launched its new History Website.

Visit

Happy Birthday!

This year marks the 125th anniversary of the establishment of Barclays as a limited company. The first Board of Directors of Barclay & Co Ltd was an amalgamation of 20 private banks, led by Barclay, Bevan, Tritton & Co. Drawn together to compete with larger joint stock banks, the 20 banks came from across England, and many of them were already connected through their shared Quaker heritage. Starting with 960 staff, 182 branches, and assets of £29 million, by 1920, through a programme of growth and amalgamation, Barclays had become one of the UK’s ‘top five’. By 1935, it was Britain’s biggest bank. Although Barclays can trace its history back, via Barclay, Bevan, Tritton & Co to 1690, 1896 is no less significant, marking the beginning of the modern company.