

eabh Newsletter

ISSUE
01

April 2020

VIDEO & WEB

Zoom Webinar

GDPR & COVID-19

An interactive session with Arye Schreiber discussing:

- Vital interest and epidemics
- Public interest and public health
- How do we protect the health and privacy of our employees and site visitors?
- Lessons learned from the Ebola outbreak
- The need for massive data sharing
- The Open COVID-19 Data Curation Group
- International transfers
- 'My home is my castle', Quarantine & privacy

VIDEO EVENT & PRESENTATION

Video lectures

Two video lectures are now available online.

A Brief History of Schroders and Investment Management

Caroline Shaw

The Schroders story, from Hamburg merchants to London merchant bankers.

The Rate of Return on Everything, 1870 - 2015

Moritz Schularick

Long run returns on real estate compared to other asset classes.

VIEW ONLINE

EVENTS

Lunch

Ultra Easy Monetary Policy. Cure or Curse?

The next eabh lunch hour is planned to take place on 17 June in Munich together with Allianz Global Investors.

Harold James (Princeton University) and Eric Bartholon (Head of Research Allianz SE) will take a long-term perspective on easy monetary policies and their implications.

Postponed

GDPR & Archives

The workshop GDPR & Archives has been postponed to later in 2020.

Conference & Workshop

The Athens conference

The Athens conference (Finance & Migration) & workshop (Photography Collections of Financial Companies) have been postponed to October 2020. All members will be receiving their personal invitation as soon as the new date has been set. All submitted paper proposals will still be valid.

EVENTS

PUBLICATIONS

Bulletin

The Photography Edition

The next edition of the eabh bulletin will look at the Photography Collections of Financial Companies. You are all invited to send us articles about your companies' photography collections. The more pictures the better!

Bulletin 'mixed' edition

As a special in 2020 we will publish a bulletin with mixed content. Send us your new research, projects, collection descriptions, book recommendations, anniversary announcements, etc. in order to share best practice and ideas with your colleagues.

PREVIOUS EDITIONS

New Editors

Andrea Papadia, Postdoctoral Researcher at Bonn University and Chenzi Xu, Dartmouth College will be the new editors of the eabh Papers series.

The series is a chance for new scholars to develop their work on the track to peer reviewed publishing. Please spread the word about the opportunity.

PAPERS ONLINE

IN BRIEF

Coming soon

Social Aims of Finance'

The publication: 'Social Aims of Finance' (Torino 2018) is currently undergoing editorial process and will be available to all members by the end of 2020.

Online

Financial History Review

For the time being, the FHR will be available online only. The reason is the disruption of the global printing chain following the Covid-19 crisis. Members will be receiving their print copies as soon as the problem has been solved.

Conference

Finance & the State

A one day conference about the complex relationship between the State and the Financial sector is planned for November 2020 in Frankfurt am Main.

The Rothschild Archive

Curating a crisis?

Home working in the pandemic: how's it going for you? The Rothschild Archive decided to let future researchers know how it is going for us by keeping diaries. Please email to Melanie if you would like to start an exchange about their 'Global Quarantine Diaries' Project: We're all in this together'.

EMAIL

eabh
we do history