Erste Group Bank AG was established in 1819, as the first Austrian savings bank. Today, the Bank's 45,537 employees serve 16.4 million clients across 1,921 branches in 7 countries, including Austria, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary, Romania, Croatia, and Serbia. Erste Group is one of Central and Eastern Europe's leading financial service providers.

Alongside the opening of Erste Campus in 2016, the Bank established its historical archive, the Corporate Archives, which now serves as 'the memory of Erste Group.' Its collection boasts over 200 years of history, carefully preserved within a vast collection of 100,000 documents, photographs, posters, film materials, and various objects. Corporate Archives stands as a powerful instrument of identity formation for Erste Group.

Today, Corporate Archives projects focus on Erste Group's significant contributions to financing common welfare and supporting economic and social transformation since 1819.

Corporate Archives warmly welcomes external partners, such as universities, museums, and press outlets, to delve into its rich collection for research purposes.
