

Programme

9.00 General Members' Meeting (GMM) for eabh members only

10.45 Welcome Coffee & Registration

11.00 Welcome

Melanie Aspey, The Rothschild Archive

Hugo Bänziger, eabh

11.15 Keynote

Nathan Sussmann, The Graduate Institute Geneva and the Hebrew University

11.45 Morning Session

Moderator: Carmen Hofmann, eabh

A numismatic analysis of the Northern Crusader States, and their relationship with Cilician Armenia, Byzantium and Islam, 1098 - 1143

Jack Hanson, Emmanuel College, Cambridge

Money and the empire. Coins in the Kingdom of Naples (1554-1580)

Lilia Costabile, University of Naples Federico II

Mints as financial institutions in Russia, 1650 - 1725

Artem Efimov, Higher School of Economics, Moscow

12.45 Lunch

13.45 Afternoon Session

Moderator: Catherine Schenk, University of Oxford

The One Pound Sterling Coin - past, present and future

Kevin Clancy, Royal Mint Museum & Mario Pisani, HM Treasury

The archives of the Paris Mint and their contribution to financial history

Dominique Anterion, Monnaie de Paris

Hunting for treasures: The archives of the Mint of Mexico, the Provincial Houses and the Guanajuato Mint in the XIX Century

Alma Parra, National Institute of Anthropology and History, Mexico

15.00 Exploring The Rothschild Archive

16.00 End

19.00 Reception

The Cavalry and Guards Club, 127 Piccadilly, Mayfair, London W1J 7PX

19.30 Dinner & talk

Hugo Bänziger and Harold James talk about current and historical economic and financial developments

Dress Code:

Gentlemen should wear a tailored jacket and tie. Ladies are requested to be smartly dressed.

we do
history